

Meet Darren

Mental Health Support Worker, Look Ahead

What is a mental health support worker in social care?

Darren works as a mental health support worker in a residential care home. The care home looks after seven people with mental health conditions, and Darren supports two of these people. His responsibilities include:

Where can it take him?

Darren takes advantage of all the training his organisation offers and

